2. There are no budgetary implications insofar as the reorganization is concerned.

25X1A9A 3. As set forth in reference (a), paragraph 4d, position classification is the responsibility of the Assistant Director for Personnel. Mr. [redacted] Classification & Wage Division, informed me that it is customary when reorganizations involving supergrades are received, to classify the supergrades at GS-15 in order that the request may be processed expeditiously. When the request for supergrades, without further action by the requesting component, is processed in accordance with reference (b), Mr. [redacted] stated that the proposed [redacted] reclassification is currently being processed in accordance with procedures for supergrade positions.

NOTED 10/17/54
